PHIL NEAL

TONIGHT we get an early opportunity to get back into our stride and put Saturday's disappointing performance behind us. I think it is perhaps more beneficial from the team's point of view to recall how well we played last week to get ourselves into this situation in the Cup tie rather than reflect too much on how indifferently we performed against Bradford.

No matter what advantage we carry with us into tonight's game, however, it is important that we accept that there is still everything to play for. We can't afford to do anything stupid if we are to progress into the next round and earn the right to that tie we want against a club from the higher divisions.

I rarely hark back to my days at the other place but on this occasion I think it's worth recounting and experience I had in a two-leg cup tie with Liverpool—just to prove that you can never take anything for granted.

We were playing Dynamo Dresden in the European Cup and led 5-1 after the home leg at Anfield. A foregone conclusion? Not likely.

We conceded a goal in the opening minutes of the away leg, which was quickly followed by a penalty in their favour. Fortunately for us Ray Clemence saved it but, just to pile on the agony, they hit the woodwork three times before we finally got the away goal in the second half which effectively made the tie safe.

We really felt the pressure that night—and we were four goals to the good going into the second leg, not just three.

On an individual note I'm sure young Alan Stubbs will have been proud to have made his Football League debut on Saturday. I can see him playing a major part in the future of the club in the months and years to come.

VISITORS REVIEW

An update of todays opposition

We welcome the players, officials and supporters of Huddersfield Town to Burnden Park for the second of three meetings between the two clubs in under a fortnight. After two seasons in the third division since their relegation in 1988, Town are expected to feature among the promotion challengers this term. Manager Eoin Hand, who replaced Malcolm MacDonald at the helm at Leeds Road in 1988, has made considerable changes during his time at the club and there was some player movement during the close season.

Leading scorer for the last two seasons, Craig Maskell, left for Reading and Andy May joined Bristol City while Adrian Boothroyd and Chris Hutchings have also moved on. New signings include Watford striker Iwan Roberts, Fulham forward Gary Barnett and Leeds defender Neil Parsley.

Huddersfield's recent record in this competition has been disappointing and after the first leg have certainly a big task on their hands if progress is to be made this season.

Their best campaign, in the old Football League Cup, was in 1967-68 when a semi-final place was achieved, Town losing 6-3 over two legs to Arsenal. More recently, they have failed to progress beyond the second round since 1983-84.

Goalkeeper Steve Hardwick, a former England Youth International, made his League bow with Chesterfield in 1974-75. He later played for Newcastle and Oxford before moving to Leeds Road in 1988. Last season he shared the number one jersey with local product Lee Martin, a former member of the England schoolboys side.

Simon Trevitt, who began the campaign needing six appearances for his League century with the club he joined as an apprentice, was sidelined by injury for most of last season but happily has regained full fitness. Newcomer Neil Parsley came to Town in the close season from Leeds United. A loan spell at Chester last season gave the former Witton Albion defender his first taste of League football.

Graham Mitchell is another young player to graduate through the youth ranks. The Shipley born defender completed a hundred League appearances last season. Dudley Lewis is an experienced central defender who moved to Leeds Road from hometown Swansea City a year or so ago after ten seasons at the Vetch. He is the proud owner of one Welsh cap and is the Town captain.

Chris Marsden is a Sheffield born midfielder who is now in his third season at the club after moving from Sheffield United in 1988. Kieran O'Regan, a Cork born midfielder with four Eire caps, joined Brighton from Tranmore Athletic in 1982-83 and later played for Swindon before moving to Huddersfield two seasons ago. He scored Town's goal in the 1-1 draw against Bolton at Leeds Road in September 1989. Robert Wilson is an experienced midfielder man signed from Fulham in the summer of 1989. The former Eire Under 21 international had two spells at Craven Cottage and has also played for Millwall Iwan Roberts was Town's major close season signing, joining for a club record fee from Watford. The Bangor born striker, with one Welsh cap so far, scored in their 1-2 defeat at Burnden in last season's Littlewoods Cup tie. He scored 9 goals in five seasons at Watford's during the summer. A former apprentice at Coventry, he made his League debut with Oxford in 1982-83 before a transfer to Craven Cottage in 1985. Striker Keith Edmonds, a close season signing from Stockport, has the distinction of being the highest Football League scorer still playing, 249 goals after previous spells with League clubs Sheffield United, Scunthorpe and Leeds United. Edwards, who also played briefly for Aberdeen, had a loan spell with Huddersfield last season and scored in Town's 2-2 draw at Burnden last May. David Campbell is a recent signing from Irish club Drogheda while Dublin born forward Mick Byrne, who joined Town from Shamrock Rovers, is now in his third season with the club.

NEWS DESK UPDATE

The latest club news and views

PUBLICITY FOR ALL-TICKET MATCHES

The Football League has viewed with concern the number of fans who continue to arrive at All-Ticket matches without tickets. This can create crowd control problems for both clubs and police, but perhaps more importantly, it can also present a safety hazard. It is, therefore, in the interest of spectator safety that the maximum publicity is given to All-Ticket matches to deter ticketless fans from travelling to these matches.

The Football League will this season with the co-operation of both the Press Association and Extel publicise all matches that have been designated All-Ticket. This information will be supplied to the agencies by The Football League. The agencies will in turn carry this information in their fixture lists.

An All-Ticket game is defined as one where entry can only be obtained with a season ticket or match ticket purchased before the day of the match. It should be noted that this does not include matches that are designated All-Ticket for away fans only.

BARCLAYS ENTER SECOND STAGE OF LEAGUE SPONSORSHIP DEAL

Barclays Bank have entered the second three-season stage of their sponsorship of the Football League Championship. Signed in 1987 the six-year £11.5 million deal is the biggest in domestic sport. Barclays will invest £2.2 million in the professional game for season 1990/91, rising to £2.3 million in 1991-92 and £2.5 million for 1992/93.

Commenting earlier this week, Barclays Bank UK Executive Director Alastair Robinson welcomed the new Barclays League season "with eager anticipation, riding on the crest of the way of soccer enthusiasm that swept the country, and the rest of the world, during the high of the World Cup in Italy."

BARCLAYS DISCIPLINE IMPROVES AGAIN

The England team's success in winning the FIFA Fair Play trophy at the World Cup reflects the growing trend within the professional game, where, for the third year running, player discipline has again shown an improvement on the previous season.

Last year's figures show a 7% drop in cautions and a 3% decrease in dismissals

	1989-90	1988-89	1987-88	1986-87
Dismissals	187	192	210	215
Cautions	3,650	3,939	4,001	4,037

Gates set to pass the 20 million mark

Aggregate attendances in the Barclays League are expected to pass the 20 million mark this season, despite the downturn in the economy and the cut in capacities at grounds following Lord Justice Taylor's Report on the Hillsborough Disaster. Gates last year rose, for the fourth year running, to just under 19.5 million. A fifth successive increase would be unprecedented in the history of The Football League, yet following England's success in the World Cup, the domestic game has every reason to be optimistic.

A greater awareness of our national game, the return to European Competition, added promotion places within the Barclays League and changes to the Laws of the game designed to encourage attacking football indicate that this upward trend can be maintained.

RECORD PRIZE MONEY ON OFFER FOR CHAMPION CLUBS

The prize fund for the forthcoming Barclays League Championship has been increased to £300,000—its highest ever level. The League Champions will earn £100,000 with the runners-up now taking £50,000. The new prize structure also provides incentives for the additional promotion places which will be available this season following the change to League Regulations.

LOOK BACK IN TIME

Reports and events from years past

4th SEPTEMBER

1897—Bolton who had been the first visitors to Goodison Park when it had opened 5 years previous, were the first team to play in front of the imposing new stand. Bill Thomson fired the Wanderers in front but before half time Everton took the lead and the game ended 2-1 in their favour.

1911—After losing 2-0 at home to Newcastle two days previous the Wanderers bounced back to beat Liverpool 2-1 at Burnden with goals from Alf Bentley and Harold Hilton.

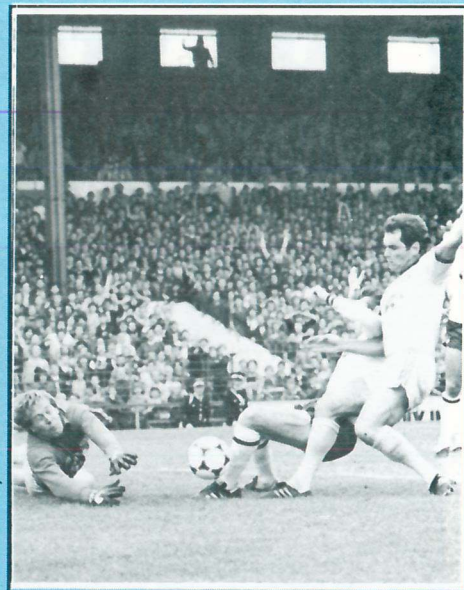

1915—An 80th minute goal from Tom Buchan gave Bolton a point from a 1-1 draw with Liverpool at Burnden in the Lancashire section of the War league.

1920—A ten man Bolton side came from behind to force a 1-1 home draw with Manchester United thanks to a goal from Joe Smith. The Wanderers had lost full back Jack Elvey through injury, the player in only his third game for the club since his record £2,500 move from Luton Town. He didn't play again that season.

1933—A Bank Holiday crowd of 9,370 at Burnden saw Bolton crash 4-0 to Grimsby Town. A week earlier the Wanderers had won 3-2 on the East Coast but they recovered quickly, winning their next five games, the first of which was by 5-1 at Manchester United.

1950—Wanderers bounced back from a 7-1 drubbing at Wolves two days earlier by defeating Chelsea 1-0 at Burnden thanks to a goal from Billy Hughes who was playing his first game of the season.

1965—Goals from Francis Lee and Freddie Hill were

PETER REID about to score against Newcastle on this day in 1982.

enough to take the points from Portsmouth at Burnden and to take Bolton's unbeaten run to five games from the start of the season.

1968—Bolton bowed out of the Football League Cup when First Division West Ham United won 7-2 at Upton Park. A Terry Wharton penalty and a goal from Gordon Taylor were all the Wanderers could find against a United team who were two up inside as many minutes. Geoff Hurst, who had scored four when the Wanderers lost 4-1 in the previous season, hit three, with Martin Peters, Trevor Brooking, John Sissons and Harry Redknapp completing the scoring.

1982—Burnden's best crowd of the season, 17,738 saw Bolton defeat a Kevin Keegan inspired Newcastle United by 3-1. Previous seasons' leading goalscorer Tony Henry scored twice, one from the penalty spot, whilst Peter Reid hit the other. Kevin Keegan hit United's consolation with a late penalty.

A look at some of the great soccer stars

TERRY McDERMOTT

Terry McDermott was recruited from Kirkby schoolboy football by Bury and labelled as a star in the making by Club chairman, Bill Allen.

"Mac" was a young frail, raw scouser and shared digs with another young prospect from Glasgow called Jimmy O'Connor opposite the Gigg Lane Ground.

Chairman Allen ordered a regular supply of steaks from the local butchers to build up the kids and both seemed on course for stardom. An unfortunate knee injury hampered Jimmy's future and he was eventually reduced to non-league football whilst Terry progressed into the first team. "I haven't seen Jimmy for years", confessed Terry.

In an effort to balance the books Bill Allen was forced to sell McDermott to Newcastle for £25,000. He helped United to reach the 1973 F.A. Cup Final against his native Liverpool and it wasn't long after that Terry arrived on Merseyside in a £175,000 deal and he began his apprenticeship at Anfield. When he eventually broke into the first team, Terry's dream had come true

WHAT THEY SAID IN '72...

Terry was born in Liverpool on 8th December 1951 and joined the Shakers as a young boy. He soon signed on as apprentice professional. He made his league debut in Bury in January 1970 against Tranmere Rovers in a memorable 8-0 victory; no doubt Terry will never forget that. Since then he has caught the eye of many club scouts.

Football is his main interest and has no time for other hobbies. His ambition is to reach the top and there's no reason why he shouldn't.

TERRY McDERMOTT

"You never forget those games" and he went on to win 25 England caps. In one memorable season he was voted Footballer of the Year.

McDermott had a two year spell in Cyprus in the twilight of his career. He explained, "It was Tommy Cassidy who persuaded me to join him at Apoel where he was manager. The standard of football was equal to Fourth Division and two teams shared the same stadium but we drew attendances of between 25 and 30,000."

The greatest experience of Terry's career was winning the European Cup against Borussia Moenchengladbach in Rome. "You never forget those games", Terry explained. "We won 3-1 and I scored the first goal. We had won the league and lost to Manchester United in the F.A. Cup Final on the Saturday then had the European Cup Final a few days later, yet we bounced back and won."

Football has been good to Terry and he has much enjoyment from the game. Of the funny side of football McDermott goes back to his Liverpool days. He said, "Without a doubt it was Bob Paisley's team meetings at the training ground on Fridays, we used to call them 'cabaret time'. Bob tended to talk in riddles and nobody really understood the points made. We usually had to ask Joe Fagan or Ronnie Moran what the team was." But come Saturday afternoon and Paisley's presence inspired Liverpool to another victory and this is why he was regarded as one of football's most successful managers.

Terry has a good memory and recalled buying his first motor car off Ray Parry. It was an old banger and rained in. Terry said, "I once left it at Gigg Lane and when I next went to it there was a puddle on the floor!"

Nowadays Terry McDermott has interests in an outside catering business and now lives in the Ormskirk area. "I never watch a game now" he concluded.

David repaid another instalment of the fee the Wanderers paid for him this summer with another solid professional performance in the victory last Wednesday night against Huddersfield Town, one of his former clubs.

He played over 200 games for the West Yorkshire club after joining them from the Wanderers and really enjoyed his spell there helping 'the Terriers' win promotion from the Third to the Second Division in the process.

It was during the 1987-88 season that Steve Coppel at Crystal Palace moved in for David and took him to Selhurst Park; "Palace were doing well at that time in the Second Division, and it proved a good move for me" said David—with him playing virtually ever present in the promotion season of 1988-89 to Division One.

Unfortunately the return of Division One football for David was marred by a early season thigh muscle injury which kept him out of the side until January when after a run of three or four games he again was sidelined with injury until the end of the season.

During the close season David jumped at the chance to return to his native North West with the Wanderers, the club which of course he joined from school. During his first spell with the Whites he was picked for the England Youth side where he played alongside such names as John Fashanu, John Lukic and Clive Allen, and he also played a starring role in Bolton's 1978 Lancashire Youth Cup winning team.

When he was asked about the one and only goal he had scored for the club during his first spell here he seemed quite surprised, thinking that he had scored more goals, but recalled that it was against Chelsea in a 2-1 victory over the London club back in February 1979.

Currently house hunting with his wife Lynda, David is looking forward to a successful season down here at Burnden Park, adding "We have a good all round side, with a nice blend of youth and experience and I really expect us to do well"; something of course that is echoed by us all.

Two goals in the last five minutes sent Bolton to defeat in their opening Pontins Central League game of the season against relegated Bradford City.

The Wanderers had the best possible of starts when they took the lead in the 8th minute. Stuart Storer got onto a flick on from Mike Jeffrey and used his pace to get past the City defence and around the keeper to smash the ball home from the edge of the area.

Bradford got back into the game in the 35th minute when Paul Comstive conceded a penalty, pushing Scott Bairstow at a left wing corner, Karl Goddard stepping up to convert the kick.

Three minutes later Kevin Rose had to be sharp to push an effort from mark Jules onto the crossbar. Alan Stubbs found the net with a close range shot for Bolton only to have the 'goal' disallowed after the referee had consulted a linesman.

Kevin Rose was quickly in the action during the second period, producing a couple of spectacular saves from long range shots.

Bolton's best chance to regain the lead came in the 69th minute when Alan Stubbs put Stuart Storer through. Storer was pulled back as he got clear but the challenge was enough to put him off and the keeper managed to block the shot.

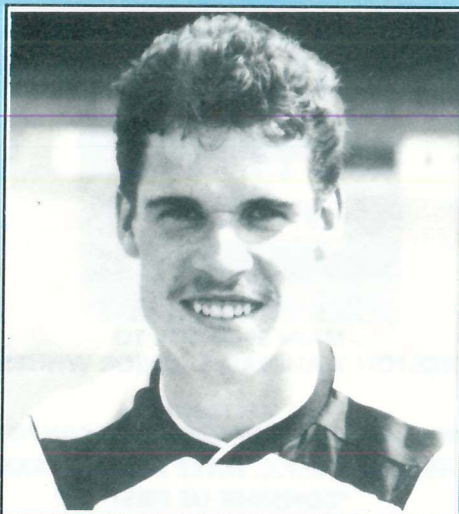

Five minutes from time Bradford went in front when Mike McHugh shot home from 12 yards as the Wanderers' defence were caught out.

A minute from time City made it 3-1 when Tony Adcock netted from close range after the Wanderers had failed to clear a right wing corner.

REVIEWING 1976...

Our fine 3-0 win at Leeds Road last Wednesday puts us in a fine chance of reaching the second round of the Rumbelows Cup tonight.

Huddersfield produced a 32 page programme for our visit with one of the best covers I have seen in a long time. As usual the content inside the programme was good with a varied range of articles and facts and figures. The coverage given to the Wanderers was adequate although I must admit to having seen better on our travels.

Overall a good readable programme which in todays inflated market is well worth 80p.

A lighthearted look at football

After last season's fine run in the ten Littlewoods Cup we turn our attention tonight to the Rumbelows Cup and the visit of Huddersfield Town in the second leg of the first round. With the opportunity of drawing one of the big boys in the next round the importance of a good cup run can never be underestimated, especially with the chance to put some extra coffers into the bank balance.

The games with Watford and even more so Swindon Town were fine matches in the cup last season with the first match down at the County ground being one of the best games I have witnessed, we took the lead twice only to see the Robins go 3-2 up late on, until super sub Mark Came equalised with seconds to go. Nobody would have thought it would take another three games to see which side would go into the next round but that was indeed the case with the lads unfortunately going out in extra time.

... times of great excitement and super football

Oh, what nights they were, times of great excitement and super football and nobody down here at Burnden will forget it in quite a while with hopefully more to come this season.

The return of English clubs into Europe this season (and not before time) is a bonus all football fans will be pleased about, with ITV quickly moving in to cover games both in live and recorded forms. I personally thought we should have been allowed back at least a couple of seasons ago because let's be honest about it, European competition without the English team is certainly devalued and even now with Liverpool still not allowed to compete in the European Cup, that must make the other clubs in that competition breathe a sigh of relief.

The encouraging performances of England in the World Cup this summer should make us realise that we have no one to fear in World football and with Graham Taylor taking over the national reins, forging stronger links with league clubs, this decade could see the reemergence of the England side to the top of the tree, it would be very nice to be lifting the World Cup come 1994 in the U.S.A.

The question is though, will the media try to torture the new manager like they did Bobby Robson, or will they play ball and most importantly play fair?

A look back at the recent past

BY

SIMON MARLAND

The Wanderers have met Huddersfield on one other occasion, prior to this season, in the Football League cup.

This came in September 1971 in a second round tie at Leeds Road. Bolton had got off to a good start in their first ever Third Division season—being the only unbeaten side after a 2-0 home win the previous Saturday against Aston Villa.

In the first round, Bolton had defeated Bradford City after it looked as if they were going to fall at the first hurdle when Peter Middleton put City in front in the 86th minute. 90 seconds later John Byrom equalised and the Wanderers won the replay at Burnden by 2-1.

Huddersfield on the other hand, managed by Ian Greaves, were in the First Division and had won only one of their seven League games, being exempt from the first round of the competition.

Bolton took the lead in the 26th minute when a move involving John Ritson and Paul Jones led to Roy Greaves smashing a shot past Town keeper David Lawson.

On the hour it was Roy Greaves again who increased Wanderers lead. His first shot from close range was blocked but Garry Jones was on hand to lay the ball back for Greaves to knock the ball into the net.

A crowd of 10,131 witnessed Bolton's giant killing act and the two teams were: Huddersfield D. Lawson, Clarke, Hutt, McGill, Ellam,

Cherry, Hoy, Smith, Worthington, J. Lawson, Chapman. Bolton

Wright, Ritson, Mowbray, Nicholson, Hulme, Rimmer, P. Jones, Hunt, Greaves, G. Jones, Byrom. Sub: Seddon for Hunt.

The prize for Bolton was a third round home tie against Manchester City which attracted a gate of 42,039. A Garry Jones hat trick caused the upset of the round but Chelsea ended Bolton's interest at the next hurdle with a 6-0 win at Burnden after a 1-1 draw at Stamford Bridge.

In the FA Cup Bolton have been drawn with Huddersfield on five occasions and haven't lost a game.

In 1923 David Jack scored the only goal of a third round replay at Burnden whilst two years later he was on the mark again in a 3-0 home win along with Joe Smith and Ted Vizard.

The semi final of 1929 saw Bolton win 3-1 at Anfield and in 1956 the Wanderers again hit three this time without reply in a third round tie at Burnden.

The most recent FA Cup tie between the clubs came in 1976 when a Peter Reid goal won Bolton a fourth round tie at Leeds Road.

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

Paul Jones signed apprentice forms for the Wanderers in July 1969 and progressed through the clubs Lancashire and Central League sides.

He made his Football League debut aged 17 years old, against Sheffield United at Burnden, a game that saw seven teenagers in the Bolton side.

He became a regular in the number 5 shirt for the Wanderers and was an everpresent in the club's Third Division Championship side of 1972/73.

His final season at Burnden ended in the same manner as his first when the club were relegated to Division Three. Jones moved to Huddersfield Town in June 1983 and made 73 league appearances for them before having spells with Oldham and Blackpool.

Last season he appeared for Stockport County as they just missed out in their effort to win promotion from Division Four.

1921/22 SEASON

The close season of 1921 saw plenty of movement on the goalkeeping front. Joe Hughes went to Charlton and Frank Drabble to Southport whilst Dick Pym was secured for the Wanderers from Exeter City.

The fee for Pym was kept secret but was undoubtedly a record for a keeper at the time. Both clubs had been in weeks of negotiation for a player who had only missed only 3 games in 5 seasons for City.

For the first time the Club were to run 3 teams during the season, the 'A' team being set up to play competitive friendlies.

In the early games of the season late goals conceded cost the team dearly. In the opening game against Preston at Burnden, in which Pym made his debut, a last minute goal from North End produced a 2-2 draw. Bolton then led Bradford City 3-0 at Burnden after 49 minutes, Pym having save a first half penalty from Bond, the Yorkshire side hit back to draw 3-3, Howson hitting the equaliser with two minutes remaining.

Cup holders Spurs were beaten twice in the space of a week and Huddersfield were beaten 3-1 at Burnden with the Wanderers including Bert Bayerstock, in his 16th season with the club, in the side.

bottom club Cardiff on 8th October, the Welsh side turned the tables a week later to win by the same score at Burnden, the Wanderers losing at home for the first time in the league since April 1920.

Three straight wins in November lifted the Wanderers into the top four and in a healthy position for the Christmas games. The double was accomplished over Manchester City, the only blemish being the sending off of Joe Smith six minutes from the end of the 3-2 win in Manchester, for a skirmish with Barnes. Smith was later acquitted from suspension by the FA.

The first defeat for 2 months came by a single goal reverse at Everton where Joe Smith shot a penalty tamely wide and the Wanderers were without centre forward Frank Roberts for the first time in almost two seasons.

Roberts returned to the side for the 5-1 win over Oldham on New Years Day in which David Jack hit a hat trick. A Ted Vizard goal six minutes from time against Bury saw the Wanderers safely through to the second round of the FA Cup.

The last two Saturdays in January were a disaster for the Wanderers. Firstly Chelsea won 2-0 in a league game at Burnden, the Wanderers being without six regulars through flu and also having Tom Buchan sent off after a challenge on South. Then came an FA Cup exit at the hands of Manchester City at Burnden by 3-1. City had been beaten 5-0 1921/2 squad prior to the pre-season probables v possibles encounter.

1921/22 SEASON

by the Wanderers six weeks earlier and this despite holding a half time lead through Frank Roberts.

There was consolation in the fact that at the time the gate of 66442 was a record for Burnden and the 4th best ever receipts in English football at £5220.

A week later only 7408 saw the Wanderers beat Sheffield United 3-1 to go into 2nd place in the league.

During March the Wanderers won 2-0 at league leaders Liverpool inflicting their first home defeat of the season. Such was the atmosphere that both teams had to be called into the middle by the referee for a cooling off period and a lecture to boot. The good win was thrown away seven days later when Liverpool won 3-1 at Burnden despite having McNab sent off.

Two successive away defeats at Sunderland, for whom Alec Donaldson starred and Aston Villa, along with a 1-1 home draw with Sunderland once again put paid to any championship hopes.

The league season was rounded off with a 4-2 home win over Middlesbrough but the cupboard once again was not bare. The Lancashire Cup was won for the fourth time, against Bury at Gigg Lane, the Manchester Cup also being lifted with a win over Eccles United at Old Trafford. Full league elevens were fielded by the Wanderers for these competitions.

The Wanderers did plenty of experimenting during the season with no less than 11 debutants. Indeed an experiment which appeared on border on the ridiculous saw Fred Keeley move from forward to half back to full back where he found his true position. One exception was Tom Buchan who had long ceased to be marvelled at on his frequent change of position.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
